

Equity Training and Updates

October 17, 2013
9:00 am – 3:00 pm
Northwest AEA
Sioux City Building
1520 Morningside Avenue
Room D

Objectives

- Identify, review and provide updates on the Role of the Equity Coordinator
- Identify the differences of bullying behaviors and violation of Civil Rights Laws
- Identify strategies to work with the provocative, student who gets bullied
- Identify strategies to work with the student who bullies
- Define, identify and practice the utilization of MultiCultural Gender Fair instructional strategies

Presenters

- Flora Lee & Marlin Jeffers
Consultants/Coaches

To Register

Click on this link:

<http://tinyurl.com/cpgud96>

Target Audience

Equity Coordinators
Counselors
Administrators
Teachers
AEA Personnel

Questions?

Contact Bobbie Logemann
at 800-352-9040, Ext. 6014
or 712-222-6014 or rlogemann@nwaea.org

Northwest Area Education Agency does not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, religion, national origin, gender, age, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, veteran status or as otherwise prohibited by law in its educational programs, services and employment practices. Questions or grievances related to this policy may be addressed to: Equity Coordinator, 1520 Morningside Ave., Sioux City, IA 51106-1716, 712/222-6114.

Persons who need special accommodations because of a disability should contact Bobbie Logemann at 712-222-6014 by October 10, 2013.